Party Police Say.

Dublin, Feb. 7.—Michael Collins, adjutant general of the Irish Republican army, was killed in ambush at Burgatia last week, in which it was previously reported he had been wounded, according to the police authorities here. Collins, the police declare, was shot dead while giving instructions to his men in carrying out the ambush attack.

Belfast, Feb. 7.—One constable was killed and two others wounded by the explosion of a bomb thrown at them while they were on duty at Warren Point, near Dunkalk last night.

Dublin, Feb. 7.—Interesting rumors are circulating in Dublin today with regard to fresh efforts the government is reported to be making to effect a settlement with southern Ireland. The belief is growing that an important development may come to light when parliament reconvenes.

According to one report, the government is trying to bring the Ulster leaders into line with a well formulated scheme to persuade the south to accept the partition provided for in the home rule act and work under it. This version of the reputed plans has it that the prize to be offered for acceptance is a grant of full fiscal autonomy to both sections of Ireland. This would be coupled, so far as the south is concerned, with an offer to release the political prisoners and grant amnesty to Irish representatives generally, including members of the Irish republican army and even men, "on the run."

Negotiations to this end are now proceeding, it is said, between Premier Lloyd George, and Sir Edward Carson, Ulster leader in the British parliament on the outcome of which depends whether the plan will be formally announced.

BOTTLE COMPANY TO MAKE NEWARK
PLANT MODERN

Improvements Contemplated Will Make Newark Factory Best Equipped Bottle Manufacturing in World Vice President Says.

For several weeks a survey of the American Bottle company has been in progress with a view toward extensive betterments. The plans are now under way but just what is to be done and when the work will be commenced remains to be determined.

H. W. Seitz, vice president and assistant general manager who was in town today hopes to see things moving this year but when seen by the Advocate this morning, Mr. Seitz would make no definite promise. He said:

"The glass industry has not escaped the wave of depression which has affected the entire country for the past few months.

"Our company is now experiencing one of the duller periods in its history. The consumption of carbonated beverages is far from robust, largely confined to the late spring and summer months, but the glass containers for such beverages are ordinarily purchased during the previous fall and winter.

"The immediate outlook is not all that one would wish, there are, I think, very good indications of a gradual revival of general business in the not distant future.

"For a number of years our bottles have been produced on automatic machines which have entirely displaced former methods. Modern machinery has enabled us to keep abreast of the times and to supply our customers with glass of superior quality at a moderate cost.

"Serious consideration is now being given to a remodeling plan which, if put into execution, will give to Newark the most modernly equipped plant of its kind in the world. As pertains to the glass industry, Newark's geographical location is excellent. It is near the center of population of the country, and fuel and other materials are accessible.

"With practically all facilities at hand for the manufacture of glass there remains only one item to consider, but a very important one—transportation.

"The construction of a modern industrial plant in these times would necessarily involve a very large expenditure of money; therefore, in the selection of a location it is of the utmost importance that any existing conditions of an unfavorable nature which might possibly retard operation or expansion should be carefully studied by our management before a final decision is made."

UP TO MIDDLEMAN
TO CUT PROFITS
OFFICIAL ASSERTS

Comptroller of Currency Declares Prices Reach Pre-War Level.

Says Labor Must Choose Between Idleness and Lower Wages.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The country is now in many respects on a sounder basis economically than it has been for years, comptroller of the currency John Skelton Williams informed congress today.

Deflation obviously inevitable a year ago, has come, he said, and prices of many basic commodities and raw materials have returned to pre-war levels or below.

"It now remains for the middleman," the comptroller declared, "to adjust his profits to the new prices before the ultimate consumer will receive the benefit of the reduced cost of living."

Labor, however, Mr. Williams said, must soon determine whether a shut-down and idleness is preferred to a lower wage scale which takes into consideration the lower living charges.

Participation by labor with capital in the profits, he suggested as the only principle to restore business.

"When conditions abroad become more settled or stabilized," Comptroller Williams declared in a summary of the present outlook, "and when at home, much needed adjustments are affected in the costs to the consumer of steel and iron products, which are still quoted about twice their pre-war prices, and about twice when coal, for which the government itself has paid in recent months as much as four times the pre-war price, and certain other commodities which are now being kept up artificially or as a result of monopolistic control, fall to the pre-war figures, get back to normal level, our country resting on a solid foundation will be prepared to enter upon a new and, let us hope, long enduring era of prosperity and healthy progress."

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1920, the comptroller said, there were 8,157 national banks in operation, the highest number ever reported. Combined resources of all banks in the country on June 30, 1920, including national, state and federal reserve banks, the comptroller said, aggregated $59,153,704,000.

Figures showing for the first time business of the principal borrowers from national banks pure presented by the comptroller. Loans and discounts on November 15, 1920, he said, aggregated $13,764,000,000 of which loans to farmers and merchants totaled $3,581,000, or 25 percent. Loans to manufacturing concerns approximated $2,862,000,000 or 21 percent; to merchants, mercantile concerns, individuals in the jobbing business and trading wholesale and retail $3,581,000, or 26 percent. Loans reported to bond and stock brokers and dealers in investment securities aggregated $664,000,000; to railroads, shipping companies, electric light and power companies, $225,000,000 while the loans to professional men, including doctors, lawyers, teachers, chemists, engineers and clergymen amounted to $375,000,000. Miscellaneous loans amounted to about $4,000,000,000 or 30 percent of the total.

During the past fiscal year the comptroller reported through presidents, eight cashiers of banks and 30 assistant cashiers, tellers, book keepers and others of national banks were convicted of criminal violations of the banking law and sentenced to terms of imprisonment running up to six years and varying fines.

Mr. Williams made public a table showing the salaries paid the executive officers by all national banks of the country whose resources were in excess of $20,000,000 and showed the largest salary paid by a national bank president to be $100,000 a year.

NEWARK CHURCHES OBSERVE SCOUT
ANNIVERSARY WITH SPECIAL SERVICE

Scouts Pin "Good Turn" Knots On Coats of Those Attending Services—Full Week's Program Will Be Carried Out By Scouts In Newark.

Good evening! Did you do your "Good Turn" today?

Hundreds of Newark people today are wearing the small square knot, tied by busy hands of Newark Boy Scouts, as a reminder to the wearer to become a Boy Scout, to be a Scoutmaster and to follow the custom of doing a good turn daily.

Scouts were detailed for duty at all Newark churches Sunday and with a supply of the knots, accord each person attending service presenting a knot on a pin as asking for a good turn each day.

Newark churches generally observed one day and in at least five churches special services were carried out. It is all a part of the week's program in commemoration of the 11th anniversary of the institution of the movement in America.

At the Second Presbyterian church Rev. Benjamin R. Weld's morning sermon dealt with the boys of the Bible. The boyhood of Christ was emphasized and the principals on which the Scout movement is founded was compared with the principals set forth by Christ. The boy with the leaves and fishes which fed the five thousand. Mr. Weld said, was a Boy Scout out on a hike, carrying his lunch with him.

At the First Methodist church Rev. Ira G. McCormick used the Richard Harding Davis story of the Boy Scout and his sermon was built on the story of the good samaritan.

Special services were conducted at the East Main street M. E. church last night and at the East Main Street U. L. church. Rev. Carlos Hanks had a special Scout service as a part of Scout Executive K. L. Brown spoke at the Sunday school of the First M. E. church at the morning service of the Second Presbyterian and the evening service of the East Main Street M. E. church.

Tuesday noon the Rotarians entertain the Merit badge scouts and Tuesday night the Father and Son banquet will be held, attended by nearly 300 scouts and fathers. Special arrangements are to be made for those boys who have no fathers or whose fathers can not attend the banquet.

JUDGE FACES
SECOND TRIAL

Cleveland Municipal Court Jurist Goes On Trial Again On Second Degree Murder Charge.

Cleveland, Feb. 7.—The second trial of William H. McGannon, chief justice of the municipal court, for second degree murder of Harold C. Kagy, garage owner, on the night of May 1st, is opened in Judge Alvin Pearson's criminal branch of common pleas court this morning.

The jury in the first trial was discharged on the night of December 31 after having been deadlocked for 48 hours. Fifty-three ballots were taken, all except the first few standing 10 for conviction and two for acquittal.

Practically all of the witnesses who testified at the previous trial for the state will again be called. Subpoenas to hold several of them here were issued by Edward C. Stanton, county prosecuting attorney, two weeks ago after he had heard reports that they intended leaving town. Subpoenas have been issued for 30 state witnesses.

In addition to these, a man who is said to have been within a few hundred feet of Kagy when he was shot, may be called as a state witness, state officers declare. The man enlisted in the marine corps shortly after the shooting and had never been called to testify.

Miss Mary E. Neely, who at the first trial testified that she stood two blocks from the scene of the shooting and saw Judge McGannon "pull something from his pocket. Simultaneously a shot rang out and then Harold Kagy, lurched forward," is expected to be the state's star witness.

When Judge McGannon took the stand in his own defense he repudiated the testimony of Kagy, and denied that he murdered Kagy. He testified that he was not present at the shooting, having left Kagy five blocks from the scene and took a street car for home. Several witnesses for the state corroborated Judge McGannon's testimony, declaring they had seen him several blocks from the shooting at the time of the tragedy.

Kagy was shot following an automobile ride with Judge McGannon and John W. Joyce, a former saloon proprietor. Joyce was tried for the murder and acquitted by jury on November 17, after four ballots and five hours' deliberation.

The following day, Roland Baskin, who then was county prosecuting attorney, reopened the grand jury investigation into Kagy's death, which resulted in the indictment of Judge McGannon on November 28. He was placed on trial December 15 and the case given to the jury on December 29.

DISARMAMENT IS NECESSARY SAYS
LEADER IN HOUSE

Some Nations Face Bankruptcy Unless Armament Costs Are Cut.

Declares Responsibility Rests With America If Action Is Not Taken.

Washington, Feb. 7.—An international agreement for limitation of armaments is absolutely essential to the avoidance of bankruptcy by some of the more important nations of the world with its attendant measureless confusion and distress, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican house floor leader, declared today before the house naval committee.

If an agreement is not reached in the near future, Mr. Mondell said, the fault will be that of America as in former days the fault was that of Germany. He added, however, that there was no time to work out the problem before the change in administration next month.

"The fault will be ours," he asserted, "because as we are the only great nation which could maintain enormous establishments on land and sea without bankruptcy, without being condemned to bear indefinitely and add to today's frightful load of national debt, it is our duty to lead the way toward relief from the present and future burdens of warlike expenditures, which, irksome and oppressive to us would be unbearable to other nations."

"More than that, it is our duty to lead the way, because strangely enough we are the only great nation that since the world war has officially taken a position favorable to the increase rather than the decrease of armaments and warlike expenditures, and the one nation, in which, I fear, there is a really dangerous sentiment in favor of increase rather than decreases of military establishments; a sentiment limited, it is true, to the number of people openly avowing it, but a sentiment never the less deeply planted, shrewdly calculating and very persistent."

Mr. Mondell attacked the executive departments of the government for their advocacy of increased naval and military forces and assailed particularly Secretary Daniels' proposal for a navy second to none.

"We have not followed Secretary Daniels' ambitious program," he said; "We shall not follow it. But that program is a message that goes out to all the world from alleged peace loving, non-militaristic America as the official acceptance abroad as a mandate to it, not an expression of the will and purpose of the American people."

"It is true that the government of Japan, stirred and spurred by the jingo sentiment of the minority opposition, was compelled to and did make an announcement of a plan and program of naval construction, which, while small compared to ours, was practically impossible of accomplishment in the condition of the industries, the trade, and the finances of the nation. But this remains as yet, in the main, merely an announcement of an unmitigated Roland for our moment. Oliver."

ARREST THREE FOR HOLD UP

Prisoners Deny Guilt But One Held to Grand Jury Under Bond — Got $140, Alleged Victim Charges.

Whites, who was relieved of his roll of $140 Thursday night and found in a dazed condition early Friday morning near the end of Perry avenue, George Benner, Oscar Faatz and Edward Probasco were arrested Saturday and taken to the city jail. WEHRLI PLANT
ON HALF TIME

Factory Employees Work Three Days Week to Take Care of Men and Avoid Layoff.

The report today that the Wehrli company had laid off its employees was found to be untrue.

Superintendent G. E. Pickup, of the company stated today, that the men were not being laid off and that the company was continuing the policy of working three and four days a week.

"We could easily care for all the work we have with two days work a week, but are apportioning the work so as to care for our employees during the dull period," said Mr. Pickup. He prophesied that the plant would not resume normal operations for some time.

ADMITS GUILT; PAYS
FINE; FILES NEW CHARGE

Officers Hurbaugh and Gorman this morning arrested W. L. Clark at Fourth and Main streets, stopping the West Main street bus and taking Clark from it. Clark was wanted by the police on a charge of assault, the affidavit having been filed by Charles D. Alexander of 18th street.

In municipal court this morning Clark pleaded guilty to hitting Alexander on the head with a club and was fined $25 and costs by Judge Holton. According to Alexander trouble started over a girl.

Following the payment of the fine and his discharge Clark filed a peace warrant against Alexander. The hearing on the peace warrant will be held in municipal court this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

In the divorce case of Fred Boyer vs. Margaret Boyer, a decree of divorce was entered this afternoon by Judge Hunter of the probate court for Mrs. Boyer on her answer and cross petition. Mr. Boyer's petition was dismissed. Mrs. Boyer's petition for alimony was dismissed by the judge and each party in the suit was ordered to pay half of the costs.

No disposition of their property was ordered other than each is barred from a dower interest in the half belonging to the other.

DENISON WINS BY LONE POINT

Overtime Game at Delaware Results in Victory For Livingston's Squad, Score 22 to 21.

Delaware, Feb. 7.—Ohio Wesleyan's basketball team lost a heart breaker here Saturday night to the floor quintet from Denison. The final score was 22 to 21. A chance throw, a foul goal in the last three seconds of play and which was missed by Center Kohn who previously had tossed in four fouls without a miss cost the Methodists a tie with the victors at the end of the regulation time.

The game was one of the hardest played in Edwards gym for some time. Denison took the lead at the outset and was never headed despite desperate efforts of the home quintet in the second period. The first half ended with Denison leading 9 to 8. At the beginning of the second period spurted and soon established a lead of five points but Wesleyan by steady plugging cut this advantage to one point when Kohn had the quintet to even matters in the second period. A. B. C. AND HEISEYS WILL CLASH TUESDAY

With a 21 to 10 score against them in the first half of the season, American Bottle team in the Industrial League expect to have a game back in tomorrow night's game but will even things up in the game.

Neither the Hebron or A. B. C. team has lost a game in the regular playing of the league since that first meeting, but to all appearances Heisey's have lost some of their old time pep of one to judge by their record of 2 to 2. On the other hand the bottle team has been able to put the knockout on all its opponents.

If the Heisey team plays with as little team work as it was able to muster in their game with Cleveland they are going to be easy picking for the North End boys whose showing in Saturday night's preliminary showed a big crowd is expected extra seats will be provided.

Miss Sue Tait of East Locust street is spending the week in Pitts.

FINDS SKULLS OF ANCIENT FILIPINOS

Rude Implements of Carpentry Are Discovered With Bones In Cave Remote From Native Habitations.

Manila, P. I. Nearly fifty skulls, believed to have belonged to people who inhabited the island of Alaska, one of the Philippines group just south of the island of Luzon, at a much earlier period than the present Filipino race, were found in a cave recently on that island by Dr. W. D. Smith, chief of the mines division of the bureau of science of the Philippine government.

It is the belief of Dr. Smith that the location of the cave was not known to the natives of the island, being far from any habitation.

Besides the skulls many primitive implements of carpentry and warfare were collected and brought to Manila. These consisted of stone hatchets, axes, scrapers, pipes, pots and a strange amulet. Deer teeth and shells were also found in the cave, leading Dr. Smith to the conclusion that the primitive cave-dwellers lived by hunting and fishing.

Professor H. O. Deyer of the anthropological department of the University of the Philippines who has the skulls and other relics brought from the cave expressed the belief that they belonged to the early Indonesian peoples who emigrated to the Philippines in prehistoric times. Some of the skulls were found to be artificially deformed, a custom of deforming the head artificially having prevailed in some parts of Europe in very early times.

BOY PREACHES AT REVIVAL SERVICE

Eleven-Year-Old Preacher From Coshocton Gives Short Sermon on "The Prodigal Son"—Five Services Held.

Five services were held at the West Side Church of Christ yesterday. The biggest day that the church has ever seen. The day began with the record Sunday school attendance in the history of the church, then followed the service for morning worship and communion, which was unusually large. At 2:30 in the afternoon, the church was packed to the walls all standing room being taken. At night every seat was taken and every available chair from adjoining school rooms, used in quaves, at otherwise occupied places.

Carl Hoop, aged 11, of Coshocton, preached a 10 minute sermon on the "Prodigal Son." He has friends and relatives in the community and through them the arrangements were made for him to speak yesterday. He had the bearing and characteristic movements, even to the intonation of a preacher of older years. There were many tears manifest in the faces of his hearers as he preached with his sermon.

E. W. Thompson presided each morning and evening. The evening discourse was on the subject: "What Must a Man Do to Be Lost?" He said that men are lost gradually and gave the steps that they take away from God. First they deny saying to themselves that there is time enough yet and some day will be time enough. Then they neglect to go to church and get away from the influences that would bring them to a decision. Next they learn to enjoy the whole church idea. Religion becomes a thing easily marked for their ridicule and jesting. Finally they never for the last time and thereby commit blasphemy.

Mr. Kendall the song evangelist gave a large number of pictures with his travel talks last night. His subject was the "Sea of Galilee." Tonight he will begin another series of pictures of his trip on the South coast of Asia Minor in the neighborhood of the Armenian massacres and in the neighborhood of the churches of Asia established by the early Christians.

MEMORIAL TRUSTEES WILL LEASE ROOMS

The question of the releasing of the store rooms occupied by Anna L. Hoover's military shop, and Sachs Brothers, tailors, and the office of Dr. J. D. Ford was discussed at a meeting of the trustees of the Soldiers and Sailors' Memorial Building. Routine business preceded the discussion.

On a motion the question of the renting of the rooms was postponed until a special meeting called by the president for Friday evening, February 11 at 7:30 o'clock. It is expected that final action will be taken at that time.

WATCH NUMBER ON YOUR ELK TICKETS

Ticket holders for the Elks minstrels are asked to watch their tickets and not confuse the different stubs for the nights of the performance.

The tickets for tonight are numbered 133, while those to be used tomorrow night are 134.

Everything was in readiness for tonight's performance and the afternoon show pleased a large audience.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS GAME AT COSHOCTON

The Newark high school basketball team in a hard fought and rough game with Coshocton high at Coshocton Saturday night defeated the team there by a score of 34 to 24. Captain Wilson and Pittsburgh of the Newark team starred for Newark, securing 8 and 6 baskets respectively.

A GOOD JOB.

A convoy of troops was coming back on board the Baltic. The endless expense of water had made them all apathetic, and assignment to the simplest details drew a vast amount of grumbling.

"See here you," ejaculated the top sergeant disgustedly, eyeing the laziest man in the outfit. "You don't want to do this and you don't want to do that. Is there any job on earth you'd like to have?"

The youth ruminated. Then his eye brightened.

"Yes," he said, eyeing the broad surface of the sea uninterrupted as far as the horizon. "I'd like a job calling out stations on the White Star Line."

REWARD OF MERIT.

He was reading some general orders in a non-decoritized French billet.

"Listen," he said. "Remember that lieutenant who was always kowtowing round trying to get in right with the captain? Well, he's just been awarded the Croix de Guerre with two palms. Wonder how he got it. Two palms! Gosh!"

"Handshakin'!" replied his companion briefly.—The American Legion Weekly.

BOX SOCIAL.

Jacksontown Athletic Association will give a box social following the Brownsville game next Thursday night. Ladies will be admitted free when they present at the door a box of "cigs."

Enter O. S. U.

Miss Eva Swern left at noon for Columbus, to enter Ohio State University. Miss Swern who has been bookkeeper and an office assistant in the office of Dr. W. J. Kennedy for the past two years will study to be a dietitian. She was graduated from the Newark High school with the 1917 class and is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Swern of North Cedar street.

Condition Slightly Improved.

The condition of Dorothy Shrook shows some improvement. Miss Shrook has been ill at her home in North Fourth street, suffering a nervous breakdown and typhoid fever has now developed.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gobel of East Main street have returned home from Cambridge where they were called by the death of Mr. Gobel's niece, Mrs. Walter Epply and her 5-year old daughter.

SCOUTS OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY WEEK.

FYTHIANS WILL REALIZE ABOUT $1000 ON SHOW

Owing to the public demand, the Knights of Pythias gave an added performance of the minstrels Saturday night at the Hill School auditorium. The plans had called for only two performances, but the success of the production, brought out a large audience again Saturday night.

It is thought that about $1,000 will be realized on the show. This will be turned over to the building fund of the organization.

THE COMPLETE LABORER.

A stranger rolled into the office of a small town paper.

"I wonder if you would put me in touch with the writer of this ad?" he said, handing the clerk a clipping which read:

"Young man, industrious, reliable, wants work as chauffeur, cook, stenographer, painter, carpenter, clerk, night watchman, steamfitter, handy man or laborer. P. O. Box 13."

"Not a job for him?"

"No but I'm a stranger in this burg and I want to meet with an ex-army man."—The American Legion Weekly.

OLD HOMESTEAD JUST AS PLEASING AS EVER

The revival of Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead" at the Auditorium proved a pleasant entertainment for two performances Saturday.

The story of the play is well known to every one, dealing with the lovable character of Old Josh, who was splendidly portrayed by William Lawrence. From comedy to pathos and back again he endeared himself to his audience.

Bene D'Arcy made a clever Aunt Martha, but Ellen O'Malley, was a bit muddled for the character role of Ricketty Ann.

Splendid characterizations were also given by Charles Carter as Cy Prime and Oscar Sidney as Seth Perkins, the squabbling old men.

A double quartet of male voices added much to the show and it was well staged.

"BE NICE TO SWEEPERS"

VOLCANO SHOWS RENEWED LIFE

Hawaiian Mountain Spouts Flames and Steam While Lava Flows Down Its Sides.

Hilo, Island of Hawaii, T. H.—Kilauea, the great active volcano, 32 miles from this city, which for the past two years has been exhibiting tremendous volcanic force, recently overthrew the rim of its active throat and burst forth in fresh activity and brilliance.

Following weeks of steady rising of the lava in the pit of Halemaumau, the "House of Fire," the molten column reached the rim and poured over it to reach the southwest side of the great crater, while simultaneously another lava stream burst through the crater floor some distance from the first.

Hundreds of fire fountains began playing on the numerous lava lakes and sheets of flame gushed intermittently from beneath the crust surface. Along the main line of the old rift which the new flow is following, several lava cones, or small craters have formed and these add to the weird scene with their thundering blasts of steam and fire.

NO CHEAPER DIAMONDS.

Amsterdam.—In order to prevent further lowering of prices of cut diamonds, the Diamond Industry Committee has passed a resolution stating that there is no reason to sell cut diamonds at lower prices, because the price of a British syndicate for rough diamonds makes it impossible to replace the roughs at a cheaper rate.

QUEER TWIST GIVEN

WALL STREET BATTLE
 There are few pictured stories in which so many ghastly possibilities are averted, amazingly and convincingly as in "A Master Stroke," produced by Vitagraph, which will be shown at the Grand theater tomorrow and Wednesday. Earle Williams appears in the leading role as Yale Durant, which provides exceptional opportunities for him to display his talent.

Yale for years has maintained offices in Wall street, but has spent his time and his large fortune in the careless pursuit of pleasure. The picture play opens in the office with Yale, penniless and discouraged, making preparations for suicide.

A call to pay a debt of honor, an amazing opportunity making the achievement seem possible, chains Yale to life for the time being. He rarely makes a move without consulting her. When a crisis arrives and there's trouble in the air, old Sam Millington never shows signs of distress until he has consulted his confidential stenographer.

FAMOUS DANCERS

IN THE MOVIES
 Mile Nina and Mons Alexis, the well known dancers, were selected to do their specialty "Apache" dance in one of the big scenes of the Parisian cabaret, in the photoplay production "Neglected Wives," which is to be shown at the Grand today. Mile Nina and Mons Alexis, whose enviable reputation in vaudeville as eccentric dancers is well known, have in this production achieved a distinct success as the Apache dancers of the Parisian dance hall.

They furnish only one of the many fascinating and absorbing moments in the great story of love, adventure, intrigue and romance, which is characterized by a brilliant cast of screen and stage favorites, headed by the famous screen star, Anne Luther, who is supported by such popular players as Claire Whitney, Charles Gerard, Baby Ivy Ward, E. J. Radcliffe, and many others.

"Neglected Wives" is adapted from the internationally famous stage success, "Why Women Sin," a melodrama of thrilling emotions and stirring action. The screen version has been set in all the elaborateness which picture production allows in excess of stage creations. Great numbers are involved in the many big scenes, while heavy sets and impressive exteriors lend enchantment to the dramatic development. Every detail of production is carried out with a finesse that makes this photoplay a memorable achievement.

CINCINNATI PRAISES

"LOOK WHO'S HERE!"
 It's all well enough to prate about showmen sticking to their last, but there are delightful exceptions that may, on the one hand, prove the rule, and may, on the other, demonstrate just how the manufacturers of old saws know not whereof they spoke. At any rate if there are any more actors who can step out of their parts and become producers with a like success to that achieved by Cecil Lean, let them go to it, free, frenzied and uncumbered. For the new farce with music, "Look

Harvey Beresford in "Shavings."

Who's Here," which opened for a week's engagement at the Lyric theater last night, is a rip-roaring entertainment from start to finish and bears not the slightest hall mark of amateurish presentation. And the resourceful Cecil not only owns it and produces it, but has written a lot that is in it, and to make it more binding, forms a personal frame work about which all of it is both built and acted.

With his costar, the decidedly pulchritudinous Cleo Mayfield, who happens to be Mrs. Cecil in private life, Lean gets his action going early and keeps it up "in high" until the very end, and a decidedly novel end it is, with the two principals waving cheery good bys before the curtain.

WILLIAM COLLIER HERE
 William Collier in "The Hottentot" coming to the Auditorium next Saturday has a "laugh-compelling" farce. This is a distinct novelty in the amusement world. There have been "screen comedies," "comedies," "halls," "laugh riots," "uproarious" comedies and numerous other brands, but the comedy or farce that gives one no alternative and simply compels laughter, is sure to prove the most highly prized of all.

The "Hottentot" is the work of Victor Mayes and William Collier himself and is proving one of the most successful starring vehicles. Mr. Collier has ever had, it tickled New York's funny bone all last season and now it is dispensing merriment and entertainment in every city Mr. Collier visits.

a remarkably successful engagement in Chicago. In the company are such well known people as Donald Mack, Calvin Thomas, Frederic Karr, Arthur Howard, Edwin Taylor Howard (Hull Gibson), Georgia Lee Hall, Elizabeth Moffat, Helen Audiffred and Mildred Hall.

EILEEN PERCY SEEN IN

CLEVER SCREEN FAIRY
 A smashing clever screen face in which Eileen Percy, the William Fox beauty—who has the added distinction of being one of the cleverest young women on the screen—is the star, comes to the Alhambra theater when "Beware of the Bride" is shown to an audience who realized the hope of seeing something as good as if not better than Mary Percy's recent big comedy success, "The Husband Hunter."

To describe a screen face is well-nigh impossible. It moves too fast, and is so fast, the printed word is impotent to do it justice. Then what's the use?

The best way is just to see it and endorse it. "Why Women Sin" is a melodrama of thrilling emotions and stirring action. To our way of thinking "A Whirl Night in Armor" would have been such a bad title for "Beware of the Bride," because the comedy is first encased in a masquerade and eventually escapes from a masquerade in the many big scenes, while heavy ball in which Miss Percy, as Mary Emerson, a newly wed, goes to move intolerable boredom when her husband is summoned by his firm in the midst of his honeymoon.

Two former suitors, a jealous wife, a crabbed uncle and a snooping cousin contribute to the rapid comedy action which ends in a whirl of eye vision that makes a motion picture audience shake its sides with mirth. Edgar Franklin wrote the story and Howard M. Mitchell directed the picture. A comedy is also shown.

CECIL LEAN AND CLEO MAYFIELD

HERE ON WEDNESDAY

What more could local theatergoers request for an evening's entertainment than this trinity, comprising two stars, without equal in musical comedy and a vehicle that is delightfully adapted to the talents of both? This is the offering at the Auditorium theater on Wednesday next.

Mr. Lean will be remembered by his successes in "The Blue Paradise," "Bright Eyes," "The Time the Place and the Girl" and many other musical productions. In "Look Who's Here," he is seen at his best. Besides furnishing Mr. Lean with a series of situations that are decidedly novel his role as that of a young author who writes the sort of impassioned love stories that the girls fancy is replete with irresistible comedy that keeps the audience in continuous merriment and laughter throughout the performance.

Miss Mayfield, one of the recognized beauties of the American stage, is daily cast as the carefree, happy-go-lucky matrimonial expert. Her delightful, drawing voice and pet expression, "but—dearie—" has won for her thousands of devoted admirers. In "Look Who's Here" Miss Mayfield has ample opportunity to display some of the gorgeous frocks and gowns that have made her name synonymous with creators of fashion on both sides of the Atlantic.

"Look Who's Here" is the joint work of Frank Mandel, author of George M. Cohan's "Mary," and Edward Paulton. The haunting, whistling melodies were written by Silvio Hein. Among the most popular of these are "Vaudeville," "When a Wife Gets Fat," "The Bed Hop Blues," "The Turk Had the Right Idea," "Love Never Changes" and many others.

LYRIC.

The Kelly Dramatic Stock Players who presented big class royalty, plays at the Lyric all week will continue as an attraction at this play house this week and promise a repertoire of plays they have been New York successes.

Monday evening and Tuesday matinee and night the big New York laughing success "The Good For Nothing Husband" a farce comedy in three acts will be the offering. Wednesday and Thursday the southern comedy drama "Jena Rivers" will be the offering, and Friday and Saturday the big feature play of the engagement "The Girl Without a Chance" will be staged, the company closing its engagement in Newark the following Sunday. New Vaudeville will be presented with each change of bill and the show going public are promised a rare treat in the program at the Lyric every day this week.

FEAR THOU NOT; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.—Isaiah 41: 10.

RACE HATREDS.

If you are going to get good government, you have got to find some way to make the recent comers to this country forget differences that existed in their old world surroundings. People won't vote intelligently, and they won't co-operate efficiently in industry, if they are governed by prejudices created by race extraction.

A social worker recently remarked that you have to house Bulgarians in one street and Greeks in another. They can't live on the same street and keep the peace. If they work in the same gang, they won't accomplish much if their hearts are filled with hatred against each other.

But you take these fellows and put them in a good Americanization night school, or factory school, and they all sit down together and forget about the past.

The value of Americanization work was recently illustrated at Akron, where 3550 out of 4,300 attendants at Americanization classes, have taken out naturalization papers. Only about 30 per cent of those who have not had this instruction have felt interest enough in America to seek to become citizens.

GARDEN SEEDS.

For many years it has been customary for congressmen to distribute flower and vegetable seeds. As agricultural progress has broadened, this means for development has come to accomplish very little. The principal reason for sending the seeds around is political. Congressmen feel that constituents like to be noticed.

The people want their government to be conducted with efficiency and economy. They are sick of pork methods. They want the pickings and favors cut out, and the whole system reorganized the way you would reorganize inefficient business.

Distribution of garden seeds ought to be "canned" along with a lot of useless old hat century notions. The House sub-committee on appropriations has shown the rare good sense to vote to cut it out. Congressmen who want the seeds will fight to keep the appropriation. Those from the state of Ohio will do well to recognize that their home people want government efficiency, and are opposed to these petty wastes.

BOOMING BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS.

One of the best ways to promote community spirit in Newark or elsewhere is to get the men together socially. At Mount Vernon, Newark's neighbor on the north, the various church committees serve a noon-day luncheon once a week to the members of the chamber of commerce and their friends. The sum realized is not a large one, but the plan has greatly promoted attendance.

The women are credited with having done more in that city in this way, for the chamber of commerce and the community, than any member or group of members in the organization. The Mt. Vernon member is a well organized body that is a power that to the home town.

SENATORS AND PATRONAGE.

It has been suggested from Washington, that candidates for office must gain the approval of the Republican senators from their home states.

It might seem more in accordance with the spirit of the times if the president depended on the business men for advice rather than upon the politicians. Still the system is not a bad one. On the whole it concentrates responsibility in the hands of two men rather than dividing it up among a lot of congressmen, each with a favor to pass out. The senators should realize that the country demands business government and that the old custom of issuing rewards for political service is out of favor.

BARN YARD GOLF.

National championship in "barn yard golf" or pitching horse shoes are to be held at St. Petersburg, Fla., beginning February 22.

The aristocratic sports of Europe had to have their manufactured quills to play this ancient game in their polished way, but the farm hands of America have had as much fun in their simpler fashion. They would pick up the rough and rusty old horse shoe kicking around the barn, and improvise essentially the same game in the cowyard and thrill the neighborhood.

Pitching horseshoes was a favorite sport at noon hour at many old time factories. Workmen that got the kinks out of their system in that way, never got worked up by soap box orators. Pitching horse shoes is not so easy as it looks. A good shot calls for a judgment of distance and drop that would bother many riflemen who excel at a 500 yard mark.

THE PAINTED FACE.

Girls who attend the San Diego, Cal., high school with painted faces are required to wash them before attending classes. It would be a mighty good idea if some other girls could be subjected to the same requirement.

Many women defend the painted face custom, on the ground that in no other way can a girl get attention. But if a girl can win friendship in that way only, it is naturally a sign that she is pretty dull mentally. No rouge pot ever took the place of either brains or enthusiasm.

The girl who uses these artificial means soon gets a withered appearance. She repels discriminating men, who abhor shams. If some of these pale faced girls would take brisk walks in the open air, they would create color infinitely superior to any drug store brand.

BAROMETER OF BUSINESS.

The fellows who deal in the stock market make their mistakes. But they study business conditions scrupulously, and can usually forecast the business future.

The stock market was falling all last year while business was still humming. That meant that the stock operators saw trouble ahead. Their prediction was correct, as seen in the considerable amount of unemployment now existing.

The market has now had some degree of recovery, which again is a forecast of better times. It will not be many weeks before you will see that prediction also fulfilled and factories now running on short time will be open again.

Bank presidents and manufacturers and diplomats should be careful how they wear plug hats, as they may get taken for Indian doctors and circus agents.

Young men are told they must be good mixers in order to succeed, but they have to mix something besides home brew.

BORROWED HUSBANDS

By MILDRED K. BARBOUR

XXV.—Half a Confidence.

Feeling somewhat that she had in Edith, looking steadily into the fire, made no comment.

"What do you think of the hospital?" she asked. "Was the operation a success?"

Nancy flushed guiltily. "I didn't go," she confessed. "To be quite vulgar, I got cold feet at the last moment."

Edith stared at her incredulously. "Didn't go? What WILL Frederick think?" she gasped.

Nancy shrugged. "What a comfort it could be to him. He wasn't operating for my benefit."

"But he didn't have to make special arrangements to have you admitted to the amphitheater," protested Edith, "and he was so anxious for you to be present, I can remember he even telephoned."

How ridiculous of Edith to take it so seriously, thought Nancy resentfully. Just because she was visiting for the first time she expected to sit around operating rooms and watch her famous husband perform. Wasn't he conceited enough already without having adulation and applause from a chance guest of his wife's?

car had borne him out of home."

Edith, looking steadily into the fire, made no comment.

"What do you think of the hospital?" she asked. "Was the operation a success?"

Nancy flushed guiltily. "I didn't go," she confessed. "To be quite vulgar, I got cold feet at the last moment."

Edith stared at her incredulously. "Didn't go? What WILL Frederick think?" she gasped.

Nancy shrugged. "What a comfort it could be to him. He wasn't operating for my benefit."

"But he didn't have to make special arrangements to have you admitted to the amphitheater," protested Edith, "and he was so anxious for you to be present, I can remember he even telephoned."

How ridiculous of Edith to take it so seriously, thought Nancy resentfully. Just because she was visiting for the first time she expected to sit around operating rooms and watch her famous husband perform. Wasn't he conceited enough already without having adulation and applause from a chance guest of his wife's?

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F.M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

DEAR PETEY:

Bet you a house and lot you'd stay in W-S a month if you ever got to know folks here like I have. Between business and Reynolds factories and a bully time—well my date book has been bubbling over! And, I'm still running into facts that would stagger even your imagination, old football, withall your kick!

Pete, take it straight from government figures direct to you, that every work day in the week R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. buys from our "Uncle Sam" enough revenue stamps to pay for a duplicate of the handsome new Winston-Salem post office building! Ever hear of such a thing?

And, if you want to get an eye-full of an army of more than 15,000 people, be down in the Reynolds factory district when the whistles blow! Never saw such a cigarette firing-up time in my life!

Peter, everytime you light a Camel in the future, call back on what I've slipped you about Camels—absolutely, the greatest cigarette at any price—for quality, for refreshing flavor, for mellow mild body, for freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or odor! It's worth the busiest smoker's time to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world! Camels are simply a revelation! You know that.

SIMPLICITY OF HARDING'S COMING INAUGURATION TO BE MODELED AFTER THAT OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Harding's inauguration is to be modeled after that of President Lincoln in its simplicity, according to advance reports. When he is sworn in as president of the U. S. at noon on March 4th and delivers his inaugural address, it will be at the same stand which Abraham Lincoln used. The stand is now in possession of Watson S. Clark, who is a son of the architect of the Capitol building. It has been used by every president except Taft since the inauguration of Lincoln. Plans for an elaborate inaugural, including a revival of the gorgeous inaugural ball, were well under way at the Capitol when the president-elect requested Chairman Edward B. McLean of the inaugural committee to drop the plans. He explained that he much preferred a simple ceremony at the Capitol. The affair planned would have cost the government over $100,000.

Virginia Bonner, Benedicte Kent, Edith Werner, Mildred Anna Lewis Masters, Sherman Congdon, John Nelson, Hugh Cooper and Junior Lewis. Mrs. S. P. Congdon assisted in the entertainment and the little hostess received many pretty gifts from her little friends.

"Mother" Song Aids College Fund

RIDA JOHNSON YOUNG

"Mother" songs often score heaviest in popularity, but love lyrics are counted upon by writers with the greatest certainty for year-after-year hits, according to Mrs. Rida Johnson Young, author of the "Mother" ballad sensation of this age—"Mother Machree." Expert opinion, this, for "Mother Machree" has sold more than 2,000,000 copies and talking machine records. Mrs. Young's authorship of this famous heart-stirrer was recalled recently when she pledged a month's royalties of the song to the endowment fund being raised for her Alma Mater, Wilson College, at Chambersburg, Pa.

To millions of persons who have thought that "Mother Machree" was written by some Irish balladist of a previous century, it will be a surprise to know that it was written ten years ago by an American young woman who a few years prior had come from Wilson College to learn playwriting and song-writing in New York. Mrs. Young has no Irish blood. She merely was writing a play for Chauncey Olcott, and an Irish ballad was needed. "Mother Machree" was the result. That sounds simple, but Mrs. Young built her success surely on knowledge that in the heart of every real man is a spot that is sacred to his mother, held for her alone. Discover what appeals to the hearts and minds of the mass of people and then work hard on putting it into words or scenes, is Mrs. Young's advice to the many aspiring song-writers and playwrights who have sought her secret of success.

A play which does not please women cannot succeed, she asserts, arguing wisely that the majority of theatre audiences consists of women and girls. Even when men go to the theatre they usually take wives, mothers or sweethearts. And women must not be ridiculed as women. The successful play must suit all ages of women, from the matinee girl to grandmother. Yet the play need not be about women principally, for this writer, who came from a women's college, Wilson College, wrote, as her first big stage hit, "Brown of Harvard." Paradoxes are fascinating. A woman without Irish ancestry writes the greatest Irish ballad hit. The graduate of a women's college writes a stage success of Harvard. Truly, woman is paradox incarnate.

"THE FALSE ROAD"

To the Theater Goers of Newark, Ohio

I wish to call your attention to the fact that I am sending to the Auditorium, Matinee and Night, Wednesday, February 16, the Cape Cod comedy success "SHAVINGS", which is based on Joseph C. Lincoln's celebrated novel of the same name. The adaptation was made by Pauline Phelps and Marion Short. "Shavings" will come here direct and intact after triumphant engagements in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

Contrary to a custom that has been followed in the past several years by most theatrical managers with a popular New York hit to their credit, I have steadfastly refused to organize and send out and duplicate companies in "Shavings". I realize that I may be sacrificing much in taking this stand, but I feel positive that the play goers of the limited number of cities to which I am sending "SHAVINGS" prior to the CHICAGO engagement on February 23, at Powers Theater will appreciate the excellence of the ORIGINAL COMPANY which I have kept intact ever since "SHAVINGS" first performance at the Knickerbocker Theater, New York, a one year ago. Many of you have no doubt witnessed a performance of "SHAVINGS" during its long Broadway run, and will be gratified to know that Harry Berensford, Charles Dow Clark, Clara Moores, Patricia Morris, Marie Vernon, Ben Lodge, Robert Craig, Mitchell Harris, Bishop Dickson and Dudley Clements are still in the cast and will appear in this CITY in the same roles with which they have been continuously identified.

Feeling that you will appreciate this effort to give you the best in theatrical entertainment.

I beg to remain Faithfully Yours,

HENRY W. SAVAGE, INC.

FIVE-CENT BREAD RETURNS IN NEW YORK

Clerk holding one of the five-cent loaves.

A New York bakery has left its patrons weak from the shock by Five-cent bread was one of the first things to go when the cost of living started to soar.

POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

MEDIA COMES TO OHIO

A bronze medal has recently been awarded to the Ohio Experiment Station by the American Pomological Society for excellence of fruits and varieties exhibited at the recent meeting of the society at Columbus, Ohio.

The fruit is known as the 'Musball'.
 A 'Wilder' it has been regularly awarded for a number of years.

Mr. Wilder was one of the early members of the American Pomological Society from Boston and had at one time in his private gardens more varieties of fruits than is now found on any state experiment station grounds.
 The American Pomological Society was organized more than 75 years ago by leading horticulturists in the east and part of the United States and Canada.
